‘RELAXATION AND ABSOLUTE BLISS
— MORE THAN JUST SKIN DEEP’

Beauty is more than the body, more than the mind. Beauty is an expression of overall harmony. Beauty is in the moment. Beauty lies in the smallest pleasures. It far exceeds mere physical appearance as it reflects one's inner constitution, feelings and action. And last but not least, beauty is in the eye of the beholder. At our Rosengarten SPA, our aim is to capture your beauty in its entirety, express it through rituals and affirm it with soothing treatments. These are tailored to your needs and executed with sublime products by natural cosmetic brand SUSANNE KAUFMANN™.

*Beauty and wellbeing:
more than skin deep.*

SUSANNE KAUFMANN™

Susanne Kaufmann was born and raised in the Bregenz Forest, a pristine Alpine valley. From early childhood, she was fascinated by the idea of using the intense effects of the Alpine plant world for beauty, health and wellbeing.

Together with a team of pharmacists and dermatologists, she has developed effects-oriented products using precious natural active ingredients for use in spas. Susanne Kaufmann™ organic treats are produced with the utmost care in a small operation in the Bregenz Forest and bottled, sealed and packaged by hand.

Product lines are perfectly tailored to the skin's individual needs, leading to visible results within a very short time:

- Improved skin hydration
- Radiant, healthy skin, even for skin with problems such as acne, neurodermatitis and allergies
- Flawless appearance of skin
- Improved elasticity
- Reduction of wrinkle depth
- Repair of skin damage

PRECIOUS ACTIVE INGREDIENTS

SUSANNE KAUFMANN™ products contain only valuable natural essences, oils and pure substances with an especially high percentage of active plant ingredients. Energy-rich oils such as rosehip and cuckooflower oil serve as carriers.

SPECIFIC FUNCTIONS

All ingredients have been selected for their specific effects with various plant-sourced substances chosen that complement and enhance each other. These plant compounds have a powerful effect that can be felt immediately.

UNCOMPROMISING TOLERABILITY

The highest quality ingredients combined with gentle processing and years of experience with plant ingredients means that the products are highly tolerable. All ingredients are dermatologically tested and we use non-allergenic fragrances.

SUSANNE KAUFMANN™ PRINCIPLES

- We use only natural preservatives
- We use only natural colourings
- Free from Vaseline, silicones and paraffin oil
- Not tested on animals and free of animal-derived ingredients
- Free of PEG compounds

The plant-based active ingredients are rich in vitamins, minerals and nutrients and exhibit an astonishing regeneration potential on the cellular level. Plants are natural moisture boosters which provide a natural anti-oxidant system and stimulate the regeneration and growth of collagen fibres. They act as surfactants that protect, nourish and strengthen our cells against environmental damage, promoting healing and regeneration of the skin.

BEAUTY TREATMENTS BY SUSANNE KAUFMANN™

NATURAL ANTI-AGEING FACIAL

Susanne Kaufmann developed methods of natural anti-ageing during her many years of experience at her SUSANNE KAUFMANN™ Spa. From a purely scientific standpoint, the skin begins to age when we are in our mid-twenties. This is a good reason for developing healthy skincare habits early on. The rewards become apparent many years later, as regular care helps your skin appear younger for longer. Natural anti-ageing treatments aim to protect the skin, to strengthen it, and to diminish the symptoms as well as delay the appearance of the first signs of ageing.

- // Thorough cleansing of face, neck and décolleté
- // Enzyme peel for gentle removal of dead skin
- // Incorporation of a powerful antioxidant combined with a short fascia massage
- // Followed by a jade roller massage to assist absorption of active ingredients
- // Highly concentrated lifting mask for an instant firming effect
- // Skincare for day

NUAD THAI YOGA means healing touch. It is an ancient South-east Asian form of bodywork that involves gentle pressure along the meridians to calm the breath and relax muscles and tendons. Blockages are removed and energy channels opened. The body is brought into balance and the result is a feeling of lightness as vital energy flows through the body unencumbered.

Nuad is given on a mat on the floor and does not require oils. Please wear comfortable, loose-fitting sportswear for this massage.
